'Dart' A Davis Tradition

Davis High first opened its doors' to students in 1914. Yet, it was not until the school year of 1927-28, that the Davis tradition, that haunts our halls today, really began. For it was in that year that the Davis High Student Body became known as the Davis Darts. Our fierce dart mascot has remained with us since, Alice Thornley submitted the dart idea for a mascot. Alice Thornley's idea won the mascot contest held that year and has been winning its way into the fans' hearts ever since. Miss Thornley served as the Vice President of the Student Body during the year, 1927-28. Today, fifty-four years later, our Dart still stands firm and dares anyone to make him step aside. He has not stepped aside for any of his challengers, yet. Nor, will he ever!

Soarin' Spirit

The spirit that belonged to Davis High will never die, as time goes on and things grow old, the spirit that was felt at DHS will be fondly remembered. The enthusiasm of the students, parents, and fans at the games, meets, and competitions was only a small part of Davis' spirit. Even when the halls were empty, a special feeling was lingering in the halls. Liveliness, pride and tradition were all a part of this spirit that will remain here as long as the walls still stand.

Movin' From 3A To 4A

Davis High took a big step forward this year, moving from 3A to 4A. Despite the popular opinion that our teams would not be able to handle the competition, we did better than we had for a long time. The athletes liked the competition, for they felt that they had gone almost as far as they could in 3A and 4A gave them something to look forward to. Not only did the players get more excited for the games, but the students did as well. We had been waiting for the change for a long time and were prepared for whatever might happen. The teams, as was their tradition, did not let us down, it had a lot to do with what they called "Davis Pride." We might have surprised other schools by how well we did, but not ourselves, because we were a first class school and we knew it!

On The Move At D.H.S.

"Excuse me, but you're stepping on my toe," was a commonly heard phrase throughout the halls of DHS as the Dart cherubs tried to move through the crowd. Movin' At School was at times very difficult, especially when you could not be late for class, but the main hall was so crowded that no one could move. Davis High was on the move! The hustle and bustle of everyday school life kept us on the run. Even with cramming for a test, rushing to get to class on time, finishing our homework on the way to school and hurrying to get our lunch down before the time ran out, nothing could slow us. We ended up tardy time after time but nothing could stop us-We Kept A Movin'!

In Memory Of . . .

Gloria Ann Richards died June 13, 1981 in a drowning accident at Beverly Beach State Park in Oregon.

Gloria was born May 13, 1964 in Bountiful, a daughter of Aaron F. and Jetta Flint Richards. She was a student here at Davis High School and would have been a senior this 1981-82 school year. She was active in music and a member of the National Honor Society and Golden Leaves Staff at Davis.

We have reached the top and we're movin' out! But out to bigger and better things, different challenges and new victories! This year we were lead by a few of our many well qualified leaders, with Keith Ferrin- President, Sue Jackson- 1st Vice President, Michelle Beard- 2nd Vice President and a hard working class committee. After four years of hard work, numerous tests, applications, college choices, graduation and on and on with plenty of fun and good memories mixed in - we were ready to move out. Yet it cannot be said of the Class of 82, that we will not be remembered, for we have left our mark on D.H.S. Though we are parting we will remain together as the Class of 82 in spirit. So let's move on out!

Dear Darts,

My name is Yuri Hattori, I'm from Kyoto, which is one of the largest city's in Japan. I'm an exchange student sponsored by Pacific Interculture Exchange. I'm very glad to be able to stay at Davis. In Japan all of the students from the seventh grade, have to study English. But I wanted to study English more, so I've had three years more than the usual. And I want be an English Conversation teacher after entering a Japanese University. And that was a good chance to improve my English ability. Also it was a wonderful experience.

After I graduate from Davis High School, I have to be a junior in Japan again. Now I'd like to say Thank You very much for your kindness to have let me stayed in this wonderful high school. I will never forget you Davis! Your Friend,

Dear Darts!

My name is Martin Klein. I came from Germany to Utah. I was surprised by the kind people. In Germany it takes more time to get such good, and so many friends. I love the school, because you can take the subjects you want and it is easier than at my old school. Another point is that the teacher-student relation is much more better at Davis. I enjoy the close ski areas and the Soccer team. The people in Utah are much more religious than people are in Germany. Also, we do not have formal dances like Homecoming and Junior Prom, where you have to come dressed up with flowers and stuff like that. But I really liked that. Darts, thank you for this wonderful year.

P.S.: I hope that you have more time for lunch next year!

Dear Davis Darts,

I'm 109 (one-o-nine.) It's my nickname in Davis High School. Because my practice uniform front number is 109 on the football team. And football team members and coaches call me "109." I felt so joyful and like it. Thank you teachers and students for your friendship while I have been here. I have really enjoyed going to Davis High. In Japan students must wear uniforms but in America you can wear what you want and I like that. I think Davis High students have a lot of school spirit. I have been studying American culture and will express it in my future. After living in American culture it has helped me in my life and in my future.

I want to thank my host family, the Gill Larsen Family for their friendship. Darts, I will never forget you!

Dear Darts,

I want to thank you for this great year. Everybody has been so helpful and kind. I have always dreamed of living in the U.S.A. and attending an American school, and now I have fulfilled my dream and loved it very much here in Utah. I'm going to miss the beautiful countryside, those mountains and especially the Americans themselves. You enjoy your life. You are so high-spirited and happy.

I really like your school. You have a great school spirit, lots of activities and fun events, football games and stomps, cheerleaders, etc. Everything that I would like to have at Finnish school, too.

So, now I have two homes, one in Finland and one here in Utah, and lots of new friends. Thanks to you I have really enjoyed my staying at Davis High. Thank you!

Dear Davis,

Talafa Lava! I was so surprised to find out that most of you didn't know where Samoa was. It is a small island which has all the beauty you would like to see! I am so glad to be born a Samoan! When I got here, it was so surprising to see that everything is so different from back home, and there are no palm trees here.

I have enjoyed coming to school more each day. Davis is a little different from my old school, but I have had lots of friends and many people that I have enjoyed being with! I appreciate all the help and care given to me by teachers and students especially my close friends. I would like to invite all of you to visit Samoa sometime in your life, so you can see the beauty and loveliness of my island because, "Seeing Is Believing!" I love you Davis, your Student,

Dear Darts,

I'd like to thank you very much for everything you've done for me to make my stay here at D.H.S. pleasant and comfortable. I've learned a lot of things that will make the rest of my life better. I was deeply impressed by your school spirit. I really admire your love for Davis Darts. In Japan we don't have exciting football games, lovely cheerleaders, an excellent band, wonderfull D'etts, and so on ... When I go back to Japan I will surely miss Davis. I will never forget you. Freedom and width are what I like in America. (Japan is only about the size of California, you know.) I love the U.S.A., Davis High School, and all of you!

P.S. I hope I can come back again, and I hope also you will come to Japan someday. Please write me.

Movin' up through the years of High School the class of '83's Junior year will always be remembered as a success. Picking up their act, the football team played extremely well this season. There was much support from the class at games, assemblies and other such activities initiated by the officers and their committee, organizing the Homecoming parade, Junior week and the Junior Assembly were among these.

Busybodies scurried around the crowded concession stand spilling coke and popcorn on each other, sponsoring stomps, selling "cheer towels" and doughnuts at lunch, not to mention the kisses sold for a measly dollar during the Christmas season to promote good cheer. All of these fundraisers helped to rake up enough money for the long awaited Junior Prom, which ended the year's events with a feeling of satisfaction.

Dear Darts,

I want to thank you for all the friendships I've had here. My time has been very exciting and I've had a lot of fun with you. I've had many good friends since I arrived here. And I've met a lot of people who say hi! and I don't even know them. I think that is fun. My teachers and friends have been very helpful and friendly to me. I really like Davis High School. My school in Finland is very different. I found out how very important sports is in a students' life here. And in Finland we don't go to the same classes everyday. We also have many more subjects to learn. I hope I could return here some day! I'll remember you all after my leaving. I really like you, Darts!

Dear Davis,

I'm Keiko Hoshijima, I'm from Japan! I've been here in America for two months. But it's still hard for me to speak English. I think American people are so nice to me that I hope I can have a lot of friends here. I like American people much more than before I came out here! I think they are so nice to me that I hope I can have a lot of friends here. But I'm so sad that I can't go rollerskating very often. Because my favorite things are rollerskating, iceskating, and I love sports! Even though I am not a good player.

I always think of my friends and my school back in Japan. I really miss them. And I want to go back soon. But I will be here for two years. I can't wait for the day when I can go back home! I hope you come to Japan sometime!

Dear Davis,

Davis High School is very different from my high school in Japan. You are more modern here. I do wish that you had a swimming pool, because I like to swim very much. I like the school and I have learned many new things in all of my classes, which I have liked. American people are very nice, and smart. American people make me feel very good, and I appreciate the way you have accepted me. I have very fond memories of my time spent here at Davis. I will miss all of you when I go back to Japan.

Hi Darts!

My name is Viveca Ekstrom, and I'm from Sweden. I must say that I really like Davis High School.

I believe you have got the best spirit in the whole state! And I think that's really fun. The thing I like most is the football games every Friday night, that is so fun when everybody gets so excited!

I like all the teachers, they are so nice and willing to help. I also like most of the students, they are so nice to me. I really like you all, and I hope you will write to me when I go back to Sweden.

Where their talent came from, nobody knew. To most of us who could not even draw a stickman, art was on the list of impossibilities. But when you got it, you got it, and there was only one thing left to do with that talent; improve it. A variety of art classes were available at Davis to help gain or strengthen artistic abilities. T&I Commercial Art taught by Mr. Perkins was a two hour block in which they concentrated on Commercial Art and technical designing skills. Mrs. Perkins taught Studio Art in which they worked on various types of paintings and drawings. There where also the basic art classes for those just starting out.

Sophomores hit it big this year while movin' through school. Of course they were much more sophisticated now that they were not Frosh, though they were still trying desperately to be big and cool like the Juniors and Seniors. Our Sophomores lived up to the tradition of high class at Davis. They were voted the most spirited class and won the best decorated hall during Homecoming week. Not to mention Pro—Schola, who with their enthusiasm and support helped bring Davis to victory. Overall the Sophomores contributed much to the 1981-82 school year. Thanks Sophs!

Dear Darts,

Hi! I'm Emi Osaki I am a sophomore foreign study abroad student from Maebaski, Japan. I like America, because everything is so nice, and everyone is nice to me! But I have trouble with the language. I hope that I will be able to keep studying in America during my high school years. And in the future, I have a dream to become a tour conductor after graduation. Hopefully, MY DREAM WILL COME TRUE!

If you would like, Please write me.

Who will be the future company presidents, top producers, and successful business men (and women)? No, not the kids in Glendor Spatten, the students preparing for the future by taking business courses such as marketing and accounting, also by participating in such clubs as F.B.L.A., D.E.C.A. and V.I.C.A. Skills needed in the business field where offered in courses such as type, shorthand, and computers. So, who will be the future business leaders, you ask? Those students who are thinking of their future, by taking these important courses, of course!

When asked about science, 99.5% of our DHS students answer (with a disgusted look) . .'Science — what a drag!" While .3% answer with an uncommon amount of enthusiasm saying, . .'Science? Why, that's my favorite class of the day!!!" If you were one of the 99.5%, you would have thought that science could NEVER be fun. But did you ever stop and think dissecting grasshoppers and other various choice activities might be fun? And wasn't it neat when someone made a mistake and the test tube blew up in his face! Just wait until the school burns down. We will all very sorrowfully take a 6 month vacation while the school is rebuilt. That's when science can be fun!!!

It was a phase of life everyone went through — it was just part of the growing up. It attacked all people and they became helpless victims at the ages of about 14 or 15. Efforts to try and control these victims had no effect until the age of 16 and in some cases 17. It was called DRIVING FEVER!!! No wonder the drivers ed. classes were so full! Statistics show that this class was the least sluffed, and more students obtained their credit in this class than in any other. Meanwhile, the victims were madly rushing in, ants in their pants, tongues hanging out so very anxious. Gosh — you would think they had never driven a car before in their lives!

The answer is COMPUTERS. The computer science program at Davis was very successful with Mr. Nelson as the advisor and teacher, they had two types of computers, the Apples and the IBMs. Those students who were involved in the program really liked it and they gained valuable skills that will help them in future careers and other things also.

We all had to face new challenges in our lives. Being a freshmen at DHS was possibly one of the most traumatic. But somebody had to start at the bottom, and this year the class of '84 had its turn, beginning with the homecoming parade. They soon learned to think big, however. How could they help it with the seniors towering over them all of the time.

Still, they didn't give up. Led by Jeff Olwiler, Nikki Kapos and Chan Davis, they had a successful assembly, and several fund raisers, including a stomp and selling doughnuts at lunch. Congratulations on doing such a good job of "movin' in " to Davis.

The Humanities classes contributed to the many activities at Davis. Their first major accomplishment was publishing a Children's Anthology book to sell for Christmas. They also pulled off a Renaissance Fair in the spring.

Behind the scenes, though, the students in 2nd and 3rd, 5th and 6th period classes were literally worked to death by Mrs. Beattie. Twenty-page tests and memorizing fifteen pages of names and dates were only a few of the things they were required to do. They were also required to memorize I Corrinthians 13, which David Winters did with the help of his bizarre mind.

Through it all they survived, only to face Mrs. Storey next.

Probably one of the lest favorite subjects in school was history. But since three units were required to graduate, students tried to make the best of it. It was also made more tolerable by the teachers. Gardner had a way of intimidating the freshmen to keep them in line. Mr. Jensen piled homework on the sophomores to keep them from getting bored. But Disco Doug Russell had perhaps the most interesting way of entertaining his classes - dancing on the desktops.

Students lived through it though, they might even have learned something and been left with some good memories.

One of the many drudgeries that a person had to go through in order to graduate was taking physical education for three separate years. This was the epitome of the cruel and inhumane tortures that school put us through. Every day a person dressed in their "fashionable gym-suit" and ran laps, did push-ups and indulged in other vigorous activities. For the competitors there was athletics, weight training for the muscle bound souls, gymnastics for the more graceful ones and for the rest of the student body there was your basic-Co-ed P.E.

Once A Dart Always A Dart

Mrs. Downs wearing her pro-schola advisors uniform.

Golda Thornley, or better known to us as Mrs. Downs. She graduated from Davis High School in 1942. While in high school she was the Vice-President of Pro-Schola. After graduating from Davis High she attended Brigham Young University for four years, while there she received her Bachelor's Degree in teaching.

She started her teaching at North Davis Jr. High School in 1948. She stayed there for two years. Between the years of 1950-1956 she traveled the world with her husband and family. Her husband was enlisted in the United States Air Force. In 1956 she was widowed, left to take care of her two children Robert P., and C. Vance. That Fall she returned to teaching again at South Clearfield Elementary. The next year she was teaching at Central Davis Jr. High School. In 1958 she started her teaching career at Davis High School.

While teaching at Davis High she has been advising the D'etts and the Cheerleaders, and of course Pro-Schola. She has also taught Health and Homeliving. She has been a great teacher here at Davis for over 23 years! When asked about Davis she says, "Davis High is the best school in the U.S.A., and all of the traditions make it such a great school." Mrs. Downs has been in school for over 31 years, and still going strong!

You tell 'em Golda!

Mr. Fred Brown- Advisor

Part of the success during 1981-82 at Davis High School was accredited to the Student Body Officers. They did a very excellent job of carrying out their duty of running the school by incorporating many new ideas like the magazine fund-raising project and a banquet for all the new students and by supporting Davis in soul and spirit. They were responsible for scheduling all the assemblies and they also organized the activities for Homecoming Week. We would like to say "thanks guys" for a very well-organized and exciting year.

Hall Patrol

Mr. Richard S. Stevenson-Principal

A certain trio was always seen patrolling the halls. Their main purpose seemed to be to get everyone out of the halls and to class on time, which was not easy. These three were also the most avid fans and loyal supporters of any activity at D.H.S. Our principals, Richard Stevenson, Gerald Purdy, and Vivian Stapley worked diligently to improve relations between students and teachers as well as between teachers and parents. Our fearless leaders lead us through a year of success, change, and improvement. They kept us trudgin' on when the going got rough.

The District Administration for Davis County directed the affairs for Davis High as well as the surrounding school.

The faculty at Davis High was very unique. There were some fat, some skinny, some small, some tall, some blonde, some dark, some gray, some with hair, and some without. But overall they were a pretty good group of people. Each one had his own way of teaching some lecturing, and discussing others by giving assignment after assignment and still some thought the most effective way to get their message across to students was to stand in the hall all during the period and talk to fellow teachers. However, they were very successful and did a good job.

Secretaries And Counselors

"YES! School will be held today!" The secretaries were growing impatient as thousands called to see if the snow would delay school. Or to see if the rumor about having 85 minute classes the next year was true. But in spite of any crisis, Davis' secretaries were unduly patient and DHS appeared to run quite smoothly!

Counselors were interesting people. They ran day and night (constantly) to keep up with all the students and their activities. They took great pains to see that all classes and scheduling problems were taken care of. They did all they could to make our futures brighter for US!

Librarian And Aides

The library - Freshmen were confused by it, Sophomores pretended to know everything about it, while, of course, Juniors hardly ever went in at all, and Seniors were finally beginning to know their way around when they graduated! To the amazement of DHS, the library was handled quite well under its new management!

"Due to the shortage of student aids, school will not be held this year." What?! Yes, it's true. Student aids, whatever they may give aid to, got much more done than is visible to the naked eye. It's certain alright, those who had aids would agree that they would have been in a bind without them!

Down In The Mouth!!!

They certainly looked "down in the mouth." They were DHS's contribution to the Dental Assistant program taught by Annette Bitner. After receiving classroom instruction and working with a dentist three hours a day for one semester, they became certified dental assistants.

DHS's portion of the nurse aide class, along with students from Layton and Clearfield met three periods a day for one semester at the Davis North Medical Center. With Sheila Navratel and Lois Simson as directors, they received instruction and experience as aides, which earned them nurse aide certificates.

Way To School

You've all heard it before. That famous line, "When I was your age, I had to walk 27 miles in snow as high as your head to get to school! We didn't have school buses in those days." These days, however, having buses and bus drivers made it a bit easier to get to school.

Ajax And Crisco

The custodians did a great job of cleaning the halls and classroom. Although, at the end of some days, there was nowhere to step because of all of the junk, the custodians had it clean to start the next day. Our hats go off to the custodians for making the school a more tolerable place to spend our lives.

Eating lunch in the cafeteria was like dining at an elegant restaurant. The food was so scrumpdidelyicious the students were found quite often begging for seconds on peanut-butter bars and lemon tarts. We owed great thanks to the cooks for preparing such hearty meals and for being our home away from home.

Worth Their Weight In Silver

"What are the silver scholars?"
"No! They're the Sterling Scholars."
"That's what I said, the sterling silvers."
"Give it up! Whatever they are, you'll never make one."

The sterling scholars were a valuable asset in representing Davis High. They began working their way up to such an honor their freshmen year and on through the rest of their high school years by getting involved in many activities, studying hard and getting good grades. They were the ones who were always working towards bettering the school, etc. Then in February of their senior year, twelve students were chosen as most outstanding from our school in twelve different areas. These students went on to compete against others from schools across the state. DHS saluted the Sterling scholars for being such excellent students.

Book Ridden

There was one group of students at DHS who was seldom, if ever seen roaming the halls during class. This group was also seen less frequently at extra-curricular activities than anyone else. The people in this group were the high-honor graduates. These were the ones who graduated with a 3.8 or above cumulative grade point average and the reason they were seen less than anyone else was because they were busy studying while others wasted away their time. Without them, the school would probably fallen to wreck and ruin because they were the ones involved in student government and in bettering the school for everyone. Congratulations - go to these people for making such good use of their high school years.

Those Who Had It

Some people had it and some just didn't! That was the common excuse used for those not so bright students who didn't achieve the goal of being on the honor roll. But, in actuality those bright students who had it, got it by (catch this) STUDYING! Yes, just a little extra had to be given to become a 3.5 honor student. It wasn't too hard but there were a few requirements necessary, studying, doing homework, reading chapter assignments and writing essays, that was it, and then you were able to achieve the honor roll. There was not much more higher you could go, except of course, high honor.

Honor To Uphold

It was certainly an honor to be awarded membership in the elite National Honors club. Only students maintaining an cumulative grade point average of 3.5 with teacher's recommendation were eligible to join. It was their duty to sustain and uphold the honor and intergreity of not only Davis High School, but of the nation. NHS's purpose was to recognize outstanding students for their dilligence in achieving top grades, sacrificing after school fun for study and preparing to become the leaders of tomorrow. A hand went out to all those students recognized for such success to uphold the honor they earned.

Mr. & Mrs. President

"I can't stand this, do we ever get to rest from all these meetings?"

"I want to go home." and "if there were a couple of boys here this wouldn't be so bad, but I hate this and all these girls?" were all common phrases heard around the SUSC campus during the second week in June from Girls' Staters, while things were just the opposite for the boys at USU! As the week went on they learned about the government and how it was run, respect for the flag and our country. Although, the activity was fun and exciting it was nice to come back.

DECA —Distributive Education Clubs of America- started this year by helping with promotion of the anniversary sale at the Ogden City Mall. Ten chapter officers from Davis attended a Western Regional Leadership Conference in Las Vegas on November 19-21. . The members of the club conducted a Shoplifting Prevention Project and a Free Enterprise Project in our community. There were also regional and state competition in SalLake City and a national competition in Chicago, where people worked in shops—on registers and with people—and worked on advertising. It should also be noted that the state DECA president, Mark Mc Millan, was from Davis.

"Learn a skill in high school, use it in the future." That was what V.I.C.A. did for students. The Vocational Industrial Club of America helped students to chose any vocational skill to help them in their future. The students did many things such as work on cars and participate in different competitions in April. It was an outstanding and very educational club to belong to. Fun, Belligerent, Loudmouths and Associates, was that what FBLA stood for? Or was it Fenatics Belonging to Legions of Africa? No, no, no, FBLA was an abbreviation for the Future Business Leaders of America. The purpose of the club was to teach the students office and business skills that would be helpful in future careers. They also had guest speakers, competitions, parties, and service projects. P.T.S.A.

PTSA-Parent, Teacher, Student Association was an organization with the main objective of bridging the gap between the teachers and students in the school. They organized the magazine drive to raise funds for different clubs in the school, they also sponsored an assembly. They tried to raise money for scholarships by different fund raisers throughout the year. There were two student representatives who gave suggestions as to what they thought we would like. The work of PTSA not always visible, but they were always at work to make school more pleasant for us.

New Arrival

The newest addition to Davis High's clubs was the Key Club. This service organization kept busy serving the community. They did so by holding banquets, reading stories at children's wards and many other worthy projects. The nationally famous Kiwanis Club had left its mark on Davis High School.

Those notorious but hard working and dedicated students who begged the studentbody to buy carnations and chocolate bars were know as Debators of Forensic people. They were very successful with their fund raising projects and that made it possble for them to enter many competitions. They did an excellent job of representing Davis High at the competitions. They traveled to Arizona in February where they represented Davis well. Under the direction of Mrs. Goforth they sponsored guest speaker such as Robert Redford came to speak.

Spiffy Opportunity

Who were those people, that strange breed called Thespians? Who knew what Thespian stood for? (Think what you may.) But this outgoing bunch were the students who brought us our thrilling Halloween movie each year. This year it was the adventurous, frightening, yet hilarious "Murder By Death." The funds were spent on many good times with each other when the gang went on such outings as ice skating, skiing and picnicing in the park. But all good fun had to come to an end, and it did in an appropriate way. All Thespians had the opportunity to get spiffied up in their finest clothes and they attended the awards banquet in which each club member was recognized for their dramatic and humerous accomplishments.

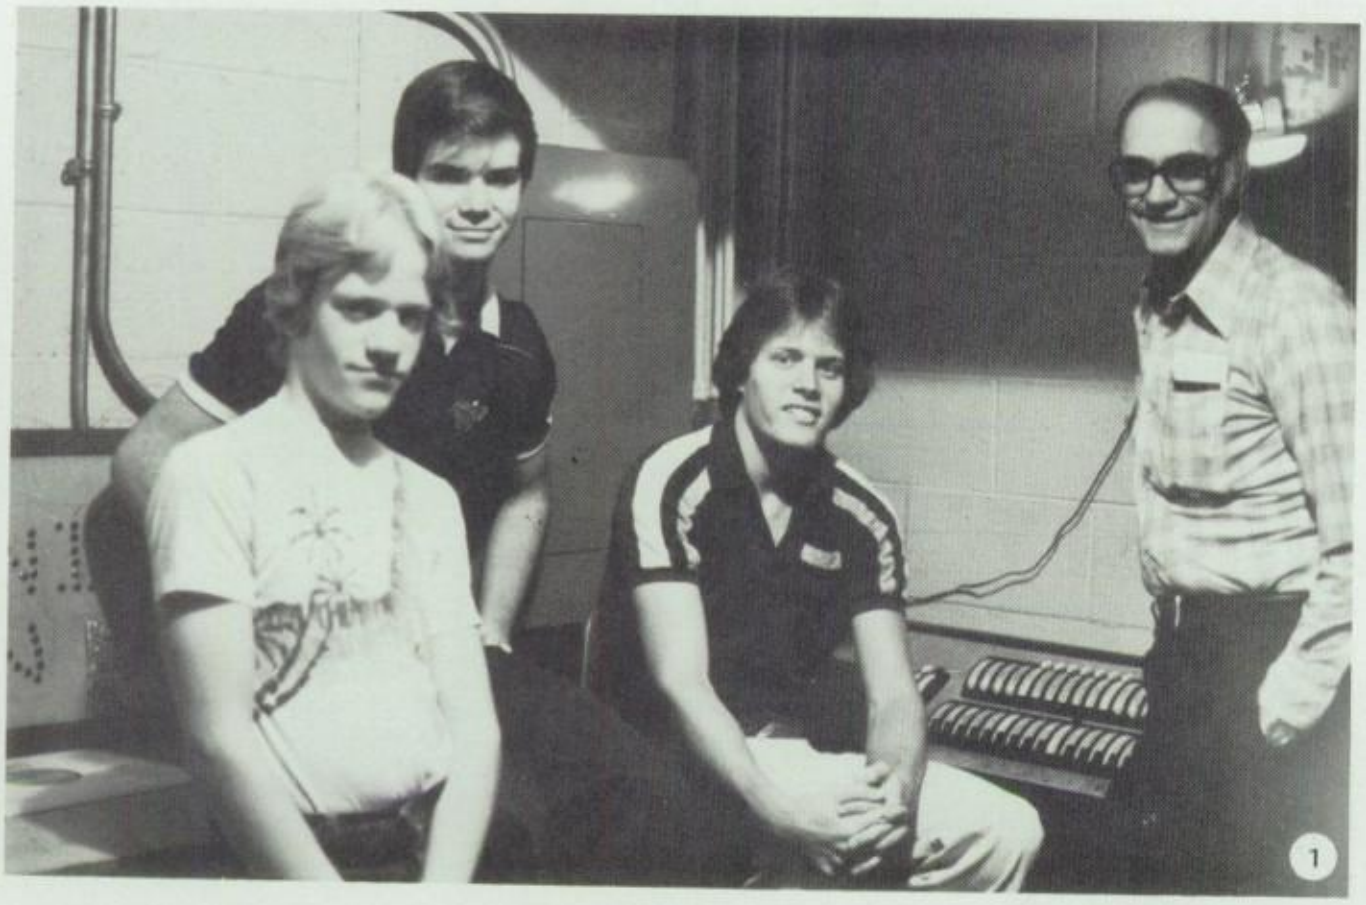
Riot Runner's And U.S.C's



Calming riots, breaking up fights, holding back crowds and clearing the isles were a few of the duties faced by the ushers. The 1981-82 usher squard was tougher than ever. They made sure everybody sat down, while they stood watching, arms folded in triumph over their chests. But thanks to their hard work, Davis was noted throughout the state for its polite and well behaved audiences.

Who knows what really went on behind the scenes at assemblies, plays, etc? Action was taken to make sure all operations ran smoothly. The stage was prepared, the lights and spotlight were ready and many more things were done for the effective use in DHS's auditorium. Yes, the U.S.C (Unidentified Stage Crew) They deserve credit for a job well done.

Many people thought that all the yearbook staff did was wander the halls during 6th or walk around looking official with a camera in hand, that may or may not have proved true, depending on which staffer you came in contact with and when. Jeanette needed a photographer for 1st lunch and what replies did she receive- Brent "?$#." Mike ran away. Dave said "That would be way cool, but I don't want to." Jim said, "I don't have first lunch." Dan said, "I have a lunch date." Could she possibly have convinced co-editor Eric to do it? Well maybe, but he was sleeping. Lynn was having a crisis that day, but there was a dead-line to meet. When reminding her staff, their replies came as follows: Maureen- "But I didn't know." Todd "Did I do this right?" Jeanette- "Look at them pups." Sherri- 'I'll be done in a minute." The copy also needed to be finished. Lynn asked, "Where is the copy, Celena?" Celena- "Don't ask me, ask them." Heidi- "After I finish dancing with Heather I'll take your question." Marilyn"Do I have to?" Pat____ _____Lynn asked " Where is Pat?" Sally- "I'm finished." Miss "A" entered with the bad news- "Oh hi, Lynn, sit down." It may seem that these people were not the ones that made this yearbook. Don't ask us. All we knew was that it was finally finished.

"Hello, I am a Davis Dart. Oh, I am not a normal ordinary Davis Dart. I am extra special, because I represent the school and all that goes on in the halls, classrooms and various other places of the school. Those students who help put me together really did a superb job and after their work was finished then I was distributed through the school to the studentbody for them to catch up on the latest news of the school. You see, I am the school newspaper, and I love my job."

Life In The Fast Lane

A rowdy homeliving class.

Until you had taken it, you would probably have thought that it was just a class that Seniors took for the heck of it. They laughed a lot and had egg babies in the spring, but that was about all. NEWS FLASH - Homeliving was not release time, (unless you were talking about releasing emotions.) They learned how to cope with life in the "fast lane" - in other words the real world. Emotions and experiences were shared in a positive, helpful way.

Whoever thought F.F.A. was just another one of those clubs who didn't do a thing but still managed to get their picture in the year book? Nonsense, they accomplished such projects as growing crops, raising beef, vocational skills in the field of agriculture, mechanics and livestock. To top it all off, they had the hardest task of all, judging and choosing a top-notch cowgirl and good enough to be their "Sweetheart Queen." So whoever said cowboys are no goods and walk around chewing tobacco with cow puckies on their boots, IT'S A MYTH!; at least at Davis High.

What was that lip smacking, stomach teasing odor you smelled on common occassions? The one that made your rumbling stomach remember you hadn't fed it breakfast. Yes, as you sat in English holding back your overworked saliva glands the Foreign language classes tested nachos, tortillas, French crepes and German strudel coffee cake. What did eating fattening food have to do with learning a language? Well, it actually was a reward for the hard working students who memorized their dialogues so quickly.

Many of the students attended the BYU and competed in several areas in which they were able to show off their linguistic abilities. Being able to order a meal and pay the bill in the correct language helped out when the group dined at the El Matador. So all in all more than sampling food was accomplished in the Foreign Language Club.

Those Singing Seniors

The enthusiastic, dedicated group of seniors known as the Madrigals worked very hard this year to attain their rank among other singers. With Becky Jarman as their new advisor and director it was a little difficult getting use to at first, but once they got started they really moved along and had a very terrific year.

May I Measure Your Diaphragm

Spotting an A'capella member out of a crowd may have sounded difficult, but unbelieveably it was not. If you looked closely beneath the chin at the approximity of the neck. There was a growth which in studies was found uncommonly large on the concert choir species. This was due to the exercising of the vocal chords day after day as they improved their sound. And if you were to politely ask to feel their diaphragm, it may have been hard to reach but the reward would be priceless. For these students unbeknown to you had the healthiest diaphragms in the Farmington—Kaysville area.

Besides getting their muscles toned up they also studied and sang a variety of musical styles. And through their dedication and hard work the outcome was beautiful. "Each performance throughout the year was a notch higher than the previous one", said Rebecca Jarman.

The orchestra was a group which was not well known in the school, but contributed a lot to the winning name at DHS. Their first big event was a successful garage sale and an auction where items donated by nearby stores were sold. The annual "Pops Concert" was held on November 24 with a bazaar, where items handmade by the orchestra members were sold, preceeding it. On December 1, Channel Two News filmed them and a tape was made of them which was played from 11:00 PM to 12:00 AM on KSAM radio, New Years Eve. All of the money earned by the orchestra's fund raisers was used to help finance a Trip to Amarillo, Texas where they were entered in a stiff competition in which they took superior ratings. Some of the places they toured enroute to Texas were Denver in Colorado, Albuquerque, and the Air Force Academy. They performed a spring concert and had a record made of themselves. The orchestra degree of excellence was due to the persistence and dedication of the members and director, Mr. Marsden, and the support of their parents. The orchestra did very much in spreading Davis High's name across the nation as a winning school.

This year Davis fielded their best marching band to date. The band performed at the home football games and finished high at the state competitions.

Along with entertaining the home crowd with their own shows, the band also performed with the cheerleaders and D'Ettes.

This year's competition repertoire included "LaSuerte", "Birdland", and "Let it be me".

At Davis Cup, Davis' brass, woodwind, and percussion sections were named superior. And, drum majors Mike Chapman and Jason Bagley were named the best in the state.

Twirl Your Hearts Out!

The rifle corps, an organization brand new to DHS this year, got off to a great start. They began in January of 1981 with tryouts and began immediately with practices almost every day, including early morning Saturday rehearsals. They rehearsed every day in the summer with the marching band, they marched in parades on the fourth, twentythird and twentyfourth of July, competed with the band at Davis Cup, BYU, and U of U, and performed at several assemblies. Congratulations on setting such a good precedence for all of the rifle corps to come.

Coloring The Field

The flag corps added color and excitement to the marching band. Tryouts were in March of 1981, they then rehearsed every day in the summer from 7-9 am to get their twirls and marching just right. They performed in three parades in the summer. One on July fourth, one on the twenty-third, and one on the twenty-fourth. They competed at U of U, BYU, and at Davis Cup where they took second place in the auxiliary part of the festival. Under the direction of Alena Collier and Mrs. Cole they performed in several assemblies and with the marching band in half time and pre-game shows.

Symphonic Band In Concert

The Symphonic Band consists of some of the finest musicians in the school.

Directed by Matt Breithaupt, the Symphonic Band had a successful season. It started with their annual Christmas concert, and in March, they received excellent ratings at the region festival.

The Symphonic Band concluded its season at the Browning Fine Arts Center at Weber State College, where they performed and recorded their spring concert.

4. The Pep-Band enjoyed themselves thoroughly playing tunes and going on strike!

A group that was unknown to most members of the studentbody was Gold Band. This group worked constantly to perfect new acquired musical skills. Many hours were spent preparing for concerts and perfecting musical pieces. Under the direction of Mathias Briethaupt they enjoyed a successful year.

The spirit of the basketball games and pep rallies stemed from a group of unsung hero's-the Pep Band. These dedicated souls blarred out their spirit through music. Both team and school benefited from the support given by this organization. "Rocky" and "New York, New York" were among their famous pride boosters. They contributed much to the tradition and spirit of Davis High.

Spirited Souls

Being a cheerleader was quite a responsiblity. Learning new cheers, organizing pep assemblies, thinking up creative ideas to enthuse the team members, and being crowd pleasers, were just a few things in the long list of responsibilities. Somehow this entergetic group managed to pull it all off flawlessly. They cheered each group on whether it was in victory or defeat. Their support was indubitably tremendous. The mood of the crowd was dependent on the mood of the cheerleaders. Their actions rubbed off on those they performed for. It always seemed to psych everyone up as they cheered and chanted, pushing the team on to victory. We not only should have recognize the athletes, but also the athletic supporters, our proud Davis High Cheerleaders.

Damsels Of Davis

What would Davis have been without its spirited, charming D-ettes? Their dances and routines were looked forward to as the highlight of every assembly. The 1981-82 D'ettes left so much enthusiasm in the air behind them it made everyone want to get up and boogie! The D'ettes were dilligent, ambitious little damsels who faithfully supported D.H.S. throughout the football and basketball seasons. They had a striking appearance and did exceptionally well in competitions as well as in fund raising activities. D.H.S. was proud to announce "D'ettes were # 1."

Pay Off For Parents

Many of the seats at games were filled with our most loyal fans, parents. The reasons varied as to why they attended. Anything from enjoying the spirit to enjoying seeinthe kids suffer were included in their reasons. Nothing could have stopped them from attending not rain nor sleet nor snow or hail, whatever the weather they were there to cheer their children on.

The Bountiful game, for the region championship in football, stood out in most parent's minds. One parent stated that it was the "fantasy game." After that game parents would agree with Coach Dickson's theory that "God is alive and He is a dart." No one was prouder when we won or more disappointed when we lost than our "Davis Dart Boosters, " our parents. One mother of a player made a statement as to why she was supportive and happy that her son participated, "Because of the caliber of men that work with my boy. He is able to associate with men concerned about him." It made all the years of raising a child worth while when our parents saw their child achieve and reach goals

Hyperactive Girls

D.A.A. (Davis Athletic Association) was one of the most active clubs at Davis. If you were observant you noticed a poster advertising for a party or festivity on many occasions.

Not only were girls involved in athletics able to join, but any female dedicated to service and having a fun time. This was one of the largest clubs. It consisted of upteen million hyper active girls. How they made enough pizza to feed these H.B.'s (Hungry Buffalo's) heaven only knows.

Besides indulging in bowling, sleigh riding, and having banquets, they sponsored the annual donkey basketball and held fund raising projects, which helped them invest in new equipment for the athletic department.

"Scit 'em and skoa!" was a typical war cry of our D.H.S. volleyball team. Under coaches Lori Parrish and Ann Avondet, our girls remained undefeated and took first in region play. Another accomplishment which they boasted of- was that of beating Mountain View the 1980 3A state champs. This year brought knee injuries and a broken foot, but this did not slow them. The unity which was shared among the team members was a key factor in their success. The team had a different secret sister for every game, which brought the girls together. The new uniforms added to their general appearance, but the spirit of the team was within the girls and that spirit brought the team victory.

A Run, Skip, And Jump

Shin splints, pulled muscles, bruises and exhaustion were just a small portion of the memories left by the girls' track team. The team had a successful season with relays, long jumps, and dashes as only a small part of the events participated in. Ann Avondet led the team to great heights and Allison Horsely and Darlene Stocton were two of the great athletes among the many. None of the team members will ever forget the high hopes and the thrill of victory they experienced. The girls played a big part in the pride and winning tradition at Davis.

Female dribblers? Since when can homemakers involve themselves in competitive sports? Well, whenever and whoever, the Davis High girls' basketball team proved themselves man enough to handle it. Yes, even with moving up to 4A, they played very well this season. How their 4 foot 11 inch coach ever had any influence on them no one knew, but the successful team stood tall out on the court!

Matt Kimball and Troy Johnson were also standouts, along with Ken Hirschi and Gary Martinez. The Darts took eleventh place in state but will be stronger next year, because there was not one senior who ran in the state meet this year.

The girl's cross—country team had a very fine season. They were lead by three of the best runners in the state; Allison Horsely, Cindy Sorensen, and Wendy Hunter. Along with those three, Jennifer Davis came through like a champion to help the Dart girls. Senior, Julie Stenquist was also a vital factor in their success. The Dart girls made their best showing in the region meet, taking first place. They then went on to take fourth place in state. They, too, will be stronger next year; hopefully state champs.

Hard Guys?

What were the qualifications to become a D-Man? First of all you had to a stud and be able to have the hard guy image all day, every day. Oh yes and one more final detail, you had to letter in a sport of your choice. Yes, these were the athletes of Davis High, those who made it possible for the students to attend the football, basketball and baseball games, wrestling matches, and track meets, because of the dedication to each individual sport.

Our varsity team began their last year of play with a no loss record for their three proceeding years. Taking on the challenge of 4A competition, as the rest of our studentbody did, our team represented us well. Our Darts marched out with victory after victory, falling short only once, in season, to Highland. Yet, both the J.V. and the Varsity men brought home the region trophy and honored DHS with the first place title by running over our rivals the Bountiful Braves. After four years of hard work and vigorious training the 1981-82 Davis football team moved to the 4A state-quarter finals at the University of Utah. A grueling game left our Darts with a loss from Alta High.

Electrifying

What an obnoxious game. Dribbling a stupid ball down a stupid court and aiming for a net that looks like a macrame plant hanger. Ridiculous you may say, but this bizarre game proved to be quite exciting! Yes, mass quantities of basketball fans flocked to the games, and never were they let down. Every game was packed with action and enthusiasm on the part of the cheerleaders, D-Ettes, and pep band. And, of course the electrifying team members who supplied the crowd with zest. (which caused many of them to say nope to their soap.)

Through grueling workouts the wrestling team suffered under the watchful eye of Coach Dickson. Through starvation diets, one could easily tell who the wrestlers were, because they abstained from everything good, some even took water pills to lose those last few ounces in order to make weight to qualify for the match. Each match was one to be remembered because, due to the self-control and practice of the team members, they downed all of their opponents with great ease and skill. It was organizations such as the wrestling team which gave Davis a great reputation. Everyone appreciated the wrestlers for doing such a great job in representing the school.

Dedicated runners, persistent long jumpers, long suffering shot putters, enduring javelin and discus throwers made up the DHS male track squad of 1982. At the first sight of spring these men were off to the races. A race with themselves to improve, to compete, to succeed and to overcome. To win the battle with themselves and most importantly with the competitor. The Davis High team was seen racin' on to victory in the many spring competitions. The biggest meet was held at Simplot for a weekend in early May.

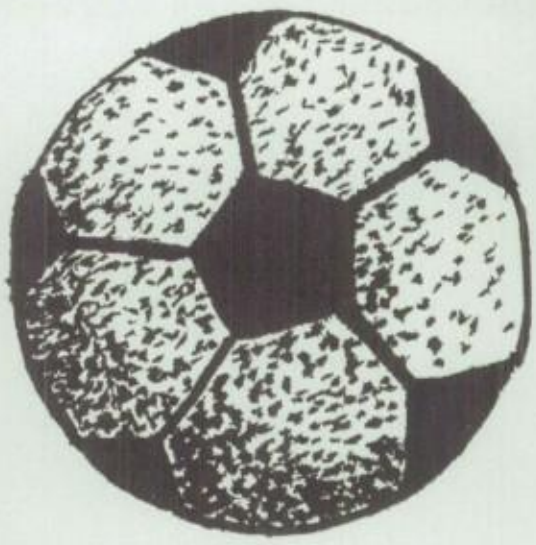
Hotter Than Ever



Soccer was quickly becoming popular sport at Davis High. And as a result the soccer team worked harder each year to surpass the results of the team from the year before. The team had gone to the state championship the past two years and will most likely do the same this year. Losing only 5 senior players from last years soccer team is hotter than and ready to kick face. With such players as Brian Bacon and Chris Johnson Davis High went far as a team this 1981-82 soccer season.

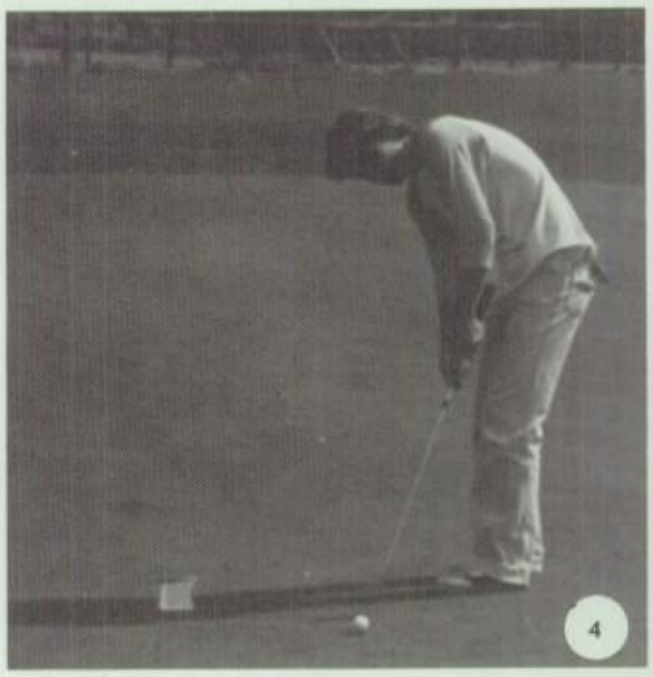
placed 9th in State Tournament



The 1981 golf team under the direction of Coach Dawson completed a successful season. The team placed third in Region Four play, one of the strongest regions in the state. This qualified them for the state tournament where they finished ninth place with the number one and two schools also from region four.

Dave Johnson played in the number one spot all season-he was followed by Chad Arbon, Brad Kooyman, Brandon Jones, and Jerome Thompson rounding out the top six players for the year. Coach Dawson stated that, "the prospects for next year look encouraging."

Students And Faculty Come To Blows

The student-faculty basketball game had an unusual turn this year-the students won! Mike Gardner and Ann Avondet were among some of the stars on the faculty team, with Mike Colmere and Troy Meacham starring on the student team. The game was prefaced by a pep-rally in which the teachers took the place of the students and were the cheerleaders and D-ettes. The game was a close one and ended up with only a one point victory, but both teams were great and everyone was grateful for the entertainment they provided.

Harlem Globe Trotters II

Dean Hunger? Scott Starsky? Scott Mounteer? I sort of remember them, weren't they famous for something at sometime. Yes! and that something was basketball. The famous alumni returned to face the Harlem Thrillers on the DHS court. However, the alumni just couldn't quite pull it all together, they led throughout the game but during the last few seconds they were defeated by the Thrillers by a very small margin. They were great basketball players during their stay at Davis and they almost proved that they still had the ability.

How Did We Spell Relief . . . Assemblies

One means of relieving students from the pressures of school was the assemblies. The first assembly of the year was the "hello" assembly in which everyone got excited for the school year. One assembly was the homecoming assembly. Spencer Kinard was the guest speaker and there were all sorts of acts put on by alumni such as Jessica Turner and Deanne Winkel singing and Bill Marsden on the piano. There were also many pep-rallies to set the spirit for the games in the evenings. Then there were Jack Lythgoe, the hypnotist, and John Goddard, the-um-all around man who came to tell us of his great feats of skill. Then came the "farewell" assembly. Everyone reminisced on the events of the year and many tears were shed because it represented a close on another phase of our lives. Yes, we all must agree, assemblies were one of the better parts of the year.

A common method of arising spirit within the studentbody before a game was by having pep rallies. Enthusing the students to come and participate in the cheering and excitement was the purpose of the rally. Those rowdy rallies consisted of such activities as a hard worked upon skit, a drill by the D-ettes, a competition with members from each class, learning new cheers and participating in the school song.

Many hours of hard work were put into these assemblies by our dedicated cheerleaders. Creative minds were needed to write the skits and willing participants were needed to act them out. Every week the team was provided with a treat for good luck, by the cheerleaders.

Not only did our cheerleaders know how to cheer, but they also knew such skills in areas of acting and homemaking arts, which helped to make each pep rally successful.

South Pacific

Sun tans in the winter? Shorts and bikinis when there was a foot of snow outside? And why all the boys with the funny looking haircuts? No reason, no reason at all, except of course the school musical. Which occurred January 14, 15, 16, & 18. If you belonged to the musical production company dedication was the name of the game. Yes, rehearsals until 8:00 and sacrifice of any extra pleasures. But, it all paid off in the end. The production was an absolute success! Demand for tickets was large and the final two shows were completely sold out. It was said to have been one of the best performances of the South Pacific.

Ripples Of Laughter

Echoes' of laughter were heard rippling across the audience when the drama department presented the hilarious "Don't Drink The Water" by Woody Allen. With material so good, how could any group not be able to perform it well. Cast members often times found themselves bucking with laughter at the humor of the script. And the students ability to act made it even more of a success. The staging and scenery were excellent, thanks to the helpfulness of the production staff who worked right along side of the cast. Yes, talent and cooperation were the two main factors in making this production all come off.

Once upon a time, far, far away, there was a school called Davis High. Now these Davis High Darts had a real big event planned called Homecoming. They decided the theme would be "Hello Again" so many plans and preparations were made for this big event. During this special time, the renamed all the streets around the school, they had a big race, called a marathon, they had a big parade, a big show for the students to see, and they had a real neat contest to decorate the Davis High halls. But the biggest and best thing that was planned was the football game. These Davis High Darts were a very strong team but when those Highland Rams got lose, those Darts could not stab them and Highland won that game. Now you see, this was a big disappointment for the Darts and Davis High School but most of the students picked themselves back up again and were found on the dance floor the next evening.

Future Plans

What are your plans after High School? One hundred and twenty-eight senior students were asked this question. In answering this question the students told of their future career and the college they'd like to attend. The careers ranged from School Teacher to Lawyers, many proving to be very interesting. Just what are their future plans?

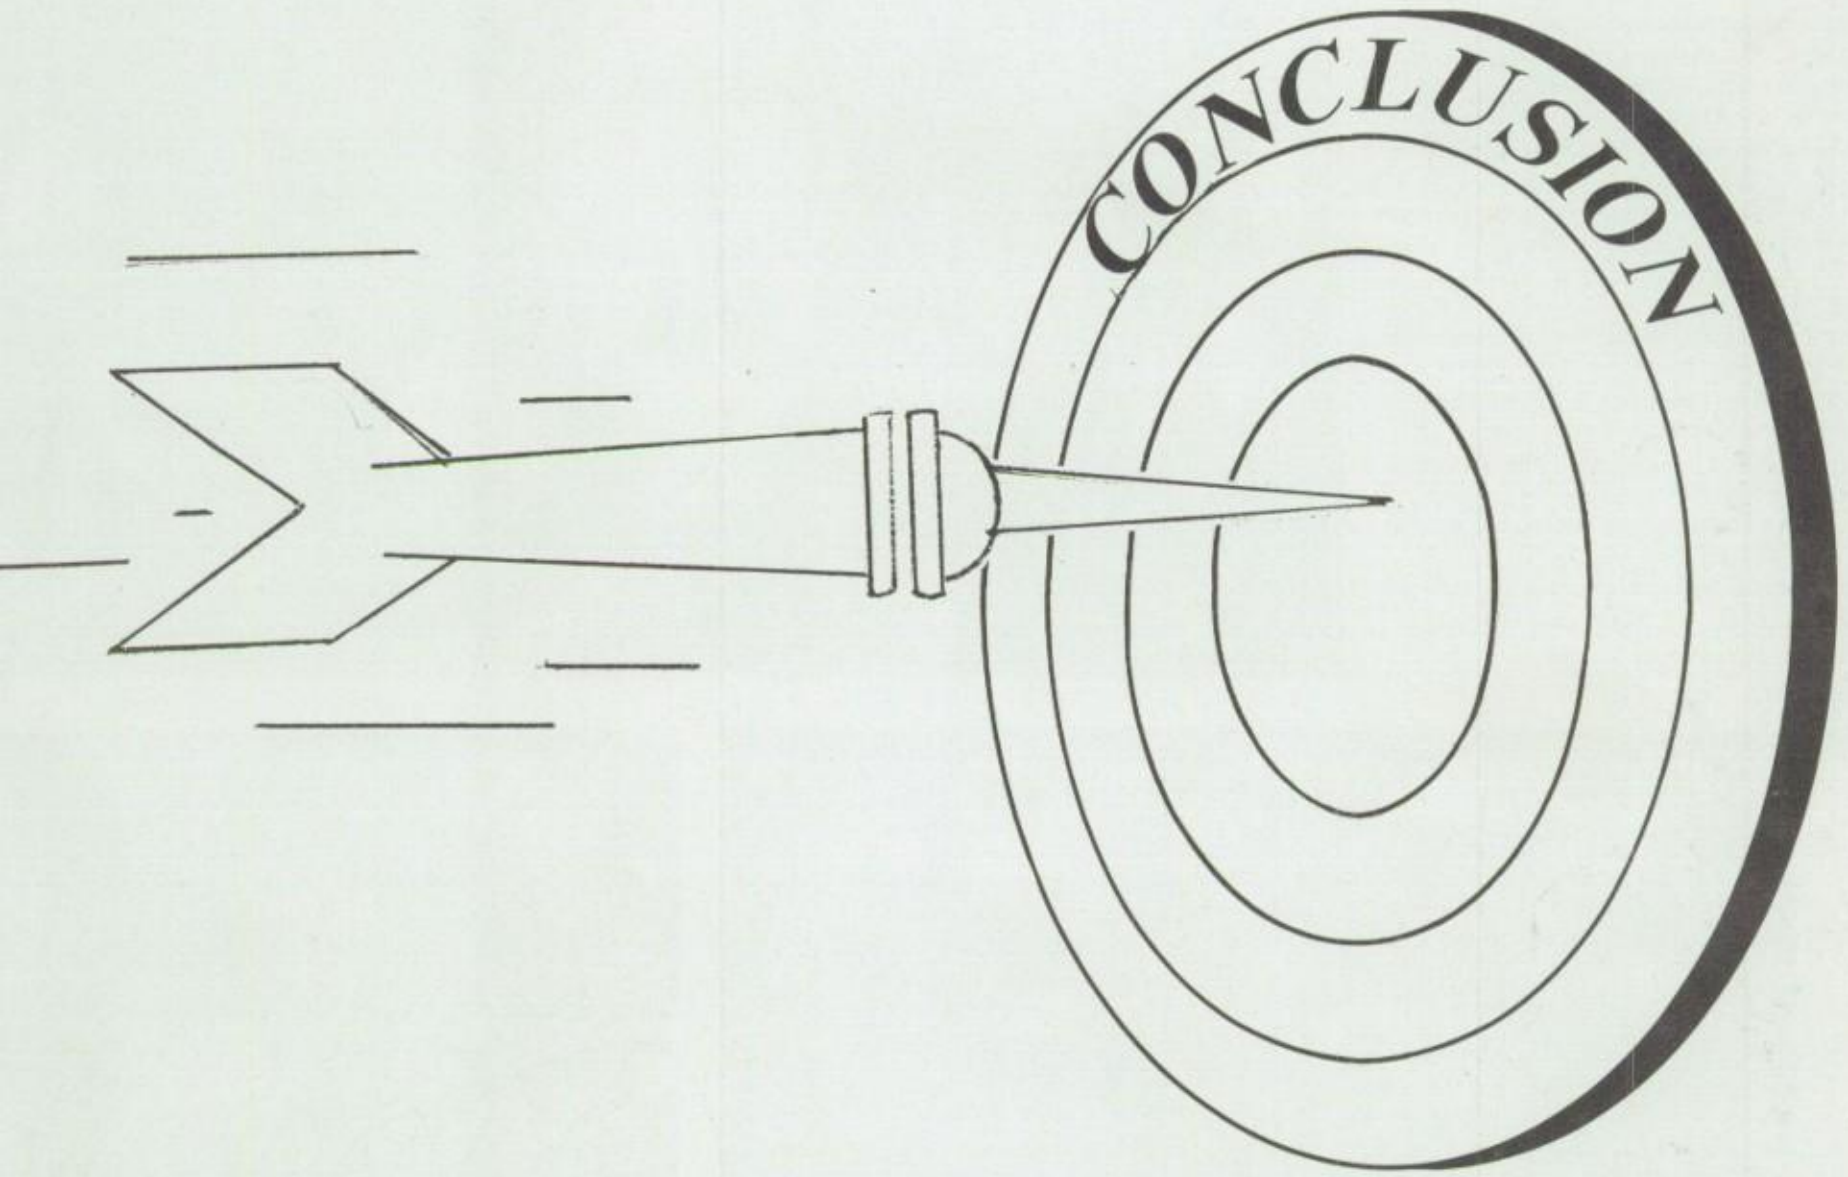
Good Luck Class Of 82



CONCLUSION

Movin To The Top . . .

1. After a performance from marching band this was all that could be seen of the percussion section, a drum stack.
2. Some of our D'ettes' Sheri Edvalson and Kathy Kapos watch as our Basketball team was losing the game.
3. In the State Football play-offs Davis lost to Alta and this was our reaction.
4. Kirk Storey goes for the shot, will he make it?
5. Lynelle Beard our homecoming queen for 1981 gives us a smile.
6. Neal Jensen played as a female cheerleader for the Powder Puff game.
7. Marie Rafalko, our Student Body Artist tries to be inconspicuous.
8. All of the football coaches stand on the sidelines yelling at the team.
9. Ken Jones blows his brains out during the performance at the State play-off game.

What was it? Spirit, Unity, Tradition. Who had it? Davis High and we were taking it to the top. The year 1981, 1982 had been one of the greatest and most successful years ever, from Homecoming to Graduation. So much had been accomplished to remind the students, community, and other High Schools that Davis was the greatest in the state. We succeeded this year in involving the town of Kaysville by renaming 2 streets "Davis BLVD" and "Dart Drive." New students were involved by a banquet held in their honor and Seniors graduated with pride in their school. We were moving alright, we were moving up!

1. 1914
2. 1924 with studentbody of all Davis County
3. 1940
4. 1982 with students from Kaysville, Fruit Heights, and Farmington.

Darts Blaze Forward

We had moved right along since the opening of Davis High in 1914. At that time there were 319 students coming from all of Davis County, attending Davis Central High School, compared with approximately 1800 at DHS in 1982. The first graduating class consisted of 32 Seniors while 430 Seniors overpowered the halls this past year. Nine classroom occupied the original building along with a library, study hall, auditorium, gym, office and a small shop. Needless to say Davis has grown enormously since the first days. Science labs, the home economics department, business, art and accounting departments were added. A seminary was built and tennis courts constructed. In approximately 1937 the music department, cafeteria, football field, track and baseball diamonds were completed. An additional wing was added in 1939-40. During 1952 the present auditorium was built (we all noticed its stunt of growth since that time,) and parts of the building were remodeled. In 1956 the fieldhouse was built. Davis continued to change in more recent years, in 1975 the cafeteria, business department, art rooms, and social science facilities as they are today were completed.

1. The Rifles strut their stuff during a half time performance by the marching band.
2. Mike Brian has a ship painted on his stomach by Alan Taylor, for the school Musical.
3. Like usual Pro-Schola is very confused, and always with their mouths open.
4. OUGH!! "right in the gut"
5. Sally is modeling the new spring fashions.
6. The Dart Staff worked many hours to produce the excellent paper. Here Alan Clark, Sheri Woodward, Cinthia Davis, and Mike Volmar finish up a deadline.
7. The annual Powder Puff game was a success this year. But this year the Junior team won.
8. Nancy Collins and Barry Watts ride their three wheeler through the streets of our big and exciting city of Kaysville.

Just because the bell rang to dismiss school did not mean "go home" for everyone. At least it did not for organizations such as athletics, cheerleaders, D-ette's and Pro Schola. Many hours were spent in hard practice developing skills if you were a member of the football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, wrestling, soccer, tennis or track teams, just to name a few. Along with the D'ettes perfecting their drills and the cheerleaders learning new cheers to lead the studentbody, hall decorations and posters were hung for all occassions. These were results of dedicated Pro-Schola members, who gave up mornings and afternoons to make them. Because of dedication and loyalty within those organizations, the long hours spent were satisfying when the results of their hard work brought spirit and feeling of pride within the studentbody.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

Thanks must be given to all those who participated in helping to complete this book. Though, at times we wondered if this year's D—Book would have to be postponed until the year 2,000, we are pleased to say with the talent and hard work of the staff the book was able to be completed for the year 1981—82.

Extra special thanks must go towards Loren Dexter for being so patient while shooting and reshooting the studentbody and the faculty photos. We would also like to thank Midvale Camera Studio. And let's not forget our company guy, Jon Wilhelmsen, from Josten's Yearbook Company, who was always so cooperative with problems or ideas we had. (Oh brother, this is beginning to sound like the Academy Awards).

Of course this book could have never come to be without "The Yearbook Staff" which consisted of: Lay—out: Maureen Barlow, Jeanette Ludden, Marie Rafalko, Todd Sorensen, Sherri Woodward. Copy: Celena Allen—editor, Marilyn Barlow, Heidi Jensen, Pat Nichols, Sally Smith. Photographers: Mike Call, Eric Christensen, Jim Hyde, Dan Loose, David Winters, Brent Wright. And last but certainly not least, our fearless leader, Miss "A" (Miss Anna Andersen).

So in conclusion, we as a staff hope we might have captured some special moments and happy memories for each of you to reflect upon when you're old geazers sitting in your rocking chair reading your 1981—82 annual.

SCHOOL SONG

Oh, dear old Davis High High School,
We'll stand for you.
We'll fight for Davis.
We're up to snuff,
We never, never, never bluff.
Against the men from Davis
None can progress.
Three cheers for Davis,
Our D.H.S.
Against the men from Davis
None can progress.
Three cheers for Davis,
Our D.H.S.

ALMA MATER

Behold the school we love the best,
DHS our DHS.
She is the noblest in the west,
DHS our DHS.
She is our Alma Mater grand;
To us, the fairest in the land.
And staunch and true she'll ever stand;
Davis High, our Davis High

Cindi,

Hey you screwed up person. Have on hell of a summer. Don't do anything tl wouldn't do. [redacted] you got to tell Lenny tim gonna take a picture of him "K"? How am tl ever gonna fill this up. Do you think Lenny knows you like him? Im gonna tell him you want to go out with him "K". Come see me at work one of these days. Lets go be crazy together this summer. But you better not get to crazy "K". tl agree with half the people that you are one crazy person. Do everybody a favor and quit growing taller "K". Stay cool and don't get in trouble. Who do you like more Lenny or [redacted] or [redacted] or [redacted]? tl don't believe this school year has gone by so darn fast. What's it like to be a Sophmore instead of a freshman? Do you want a front & back picture of Lenny? He's a real cutie. Ok well that's all tl can think of writing for now. Do better in school next year
